

Voting in America: The Good, The Bad, and The Absent

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 2020 • 6:00 pm

Thank you for participating in Ideas on Tap, New Hampshire Humanities' series of "pint-sized conversations about big ideas."

~ Program ~

What do YOU think?

- How have voting rights in the US changed over time?
- What does it mean to be an informed voter?
- What limitations are there on voting today?
- How does history influence election politics?

For suggested reading/listening on this topic, please visit www.nhhumanities.org/votingamerica.

Panelists (L-R): Dr. Andrew Moore, Professor of History and Director of Summer School at Saint Anselm College; Dr. Beth Salerno, Professor of History at Saint Anselm College; and Dr. Dianna Gahlsdorf Terrell, Associate Professor of Education at Saint Anselm College. Moderated by Dr. Tricia Peone, Public Programs Manager at New Hampshire Humanities.