The Humanities help us understand our complex past through examinations of history and culture. They guide us in seeking understanding of ourselves and one another through meaningful dialogue about questions that count.

The Humanities opens doors of knowledge and understanding that help us to become full members of society.

Form 990 - Organization's Mission

Since 1974, New Hampshire Humanities has brought the power of ideas to people of all walks of life, in every corner of the state. Our programs stimulate minds, strengthen community bonds, bolster struggling organizations, and contribute to our state's civic wealth. We connect the people of NH to culture, history, places, ideas, and to one another. We get NH citizens talking about critical issues such as immigration, the role of religion in American life, and contemporary constitutional challenges.

We invite citizens to reason together in facilitated groups, to learn from and listen to one another. We offer professional development that strengthens the teaching of Humanities, K-12 and through Connections we support adult literacy and English language acquisition, welcoming new readers and new Americans into a world of books, ideas, and opportunity.

NHHC updated their mission statement in December 2022: New Hampshire Humanities connects people and ideas by delivering and supporting statewide programs that inspire curiosity, foster civil dialogue and explore big questions.

Museum on Main Street - Museum on Main Street, or MoMS, is a unique alliance of the Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition Service (SITES), state humanities councils across the country, and cultural organizations in small, rural communities. Exhibitions focus on broad topics of American history and give host museums the opportunity, with support from state humanities councils and guidance from statescholars, to create their own educational programs, cultural activities, and exhibitions that center on local heritage.

Expenses $9,202 Grants $2,700

PHTF Program - The PHTF program presents NH educators with the opportunity and resources to explore new ideas, develop their professional networks, and create lasting educational experiences for their students.
