

Sponsorship Opportunities

SUPPORT READING AND LITERACY IN NH COMMUNITIES

Through sponsorship of New Hampshire Humanities' literature-based programs, Connections and Perspectives, you are supporting a statewide culture of reading and opportunities for Granite Staters to explore diverse perspectives in the humanities through literature. Connections book discussion program promotes English language skills, cultivates conversations about ideas, reinforces family literacy, and supports a culture of reading to more than 400 adult learners across the state each year. Participants receive up to 4 free books and keep the books they read.

Perspectives offers facilitated group book discussions in virtual or in-person settings, hosted by NH libraries, book groups, or community organizations. Perspectives provides expert facilitators and free copies of books.

Additional benefits:

In addition to the benefits listed on the left, you will also be named in a press release distributed to state and regional media outlets (print/digital newspapers, magazines, radio, and TV), as well as statewide chambers of commerce, Business & Industry Association, Stay Work Play, NH colleges/universities, and others.
