NEW HAMPSHIRE
humanities

New Hampshire Humanities Legacy Society

Information about leaving a provision for New Hampshire Humanities in your will or trust documents

New Hampshire Humanities is grateful to have received bequests over the years that have helped to ensure that we will be in a position to bring the humanities to every corner of the state – and to connect people with ideas – for decades to come.

The language below is provided as a template for you and your attorney to assist in facilitating a gift from your estate. For more information, please contact Sarah Chaffee, Development Director, at development@nhhumanities.org or 603-224-4017.

Specific Bequest

I bequeath the sum of _____ dollars ($_____) to the New Hampshire Humanities Council (d/b/a New Hampshire Humanities), 117 Pleasant Street, Concord, NH 03301 to be used or disposed of for _____ [or as its Board of Directors in its sole discretion deems appropriate].

Percentage of Estate

I devise and bequeath [all or (____ percent)] of the remainder of my property to the New Hampshire Humanities Council (d/b/a New Hampshire Humanities), 117 Pleasant Street, Concord, NH 03301 to be used or disposed of for _____ [or as its Board of Directors in its sole discretion deems appropriate].

Residual of Estate

I devise and bequeath all the remainder of my property, after other aforementioned bequests, to the New Hampshire Humanities Council (d/b/a New Hampshire Humanities), 117 Pleasant Street, Concord, NH 03301 to be used or disposed of for _____ [or as its Board of Directors in its sole discretion deems appropriate].

New Hampshire Humanities
117 Pleasant Street, Concord, NH 03301
Tel: 603-224-4071
www.nhhumanities.org