Host Introduction Notes

Introduction to be used by hosts of events
funded by New Hampshire Humanities

Decide who will speak about New Hampshire Humanities before program start time. If a New Hampshire Humanities Board or staff member is present, he or she might do so. If the event is a Humanities to Go program, the presenter can offer a few words. Make sure someone does it!

- Welcome. I am _____ (your name, role and organization). We are grateful to New Hampshire Humanities for supporting this (project/event) and want to thank you for attending.
- New Hampshire Humanities is an independent nonprofit. Its work is statewide, but it is not a state agency.
- New Hampshire Humanities grants and programs support local organizations like this one. Each year New Hampshire Humanities has sponsored more than 650 educational and cultural programs each year all over the state.
- Please be sure to write your comments on the evaluation forms provided, and include your name and contact information to be added to the New Hampshire Humanities mailing list.
- I would be happy to connect you to New Hampshire Humanities staff if you have any questions, suggestions, or ideas.
- Thank you for coming. It gives me great pleasure to introduce tonight's/today's speaker:
(If the speaker is a living historian, please introduce him/her in character)
